

Vocational education and training for sustainable tourism: Understanding tourism students and faculty perspectives

19 January 2023 | 10:00 - 12:00 NN | Horizon Building (Room Hs1.027)
Breda University of Applied Sciences, The Netherlands

The DGI Tourism Project

The Digital, Green, Innovative (DGI) Tourism project seeks to adapt the vocational education and training (VET) offering to the challenges of the digital age and climate change, innovatively accommodating post-Covid travel sector needs that enable a smooth transition towards more sustainable strategies and futureproofing the tourism sector.

For more information:

DGI Tourism Project Website

How can we better educate future tourism professionals in the face of environmental and climate crisis?

Join the discussion!

Register here

About the event

This event aims to present the outcomes of the project thus far and to garner inputs and insights on the most relevant and important aspects to include in educating the future tourism professionals grounded on sustainability.

Participation in the event is for free. Snacks and refreshments will be served.

All participants also get a certificate of participation for their contributions to the DGI Tourism Project.

PROGRAM*

- 10:00 - 10:05 Welcome Remarks
Patricia Marull
Head of Strategic and Communications, Green Destinations
- 10:05 - 10:20 The DGI Tourism Project
Marika Mazzi Boem
Co-Founder & Innovation Strategy Director, X23 The Innovation Bakery™
- 10:20 - 10:30 Project Result Presentation:
The DGI Tourism Professional and Training Plan
Savina Principi
Instructional Tutor / Sector Manager, Enaip Lombardia
- 10:30 - 11:00 Panel Discussion:
Tourism employment perspectives across the globe

European Union Experiences Albert Salman President and Co-Founder, Green Destinations	Latin American Perspectives Patricia Marull Head of Strategic and Communications, Green Destinations	South East Asian Perspectives Patice Talaue Training & Support Program Manager, Green Destinations
---	---	--
- 11:00 - 11:25 Workshop and Discussion:
The Tourism Professional in the Face of Environmental and Climate Crisis
Moderated by:
Patice Talaue/Patricia Marull
- 11:25 - 11:30 Closing Remarks
Giovanni Zorra
Project Manager, X23 The Innovation Bakery™
- 11:30 - 12:00 Networking Opportunity

DGI Tourism Project Consortium

BILDUNG IN VIELEN BEREICHEN